Nondiscrimination Statement: Discrimination is Against the Law

The Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health Board of Franklin County (ADAMH) is committed to the principle of upholding the equal rights of all individuals, regardless of race, color, national origin, age, gender, pregnancy, sexual orientation, genetic information, or disability.

The following are specific provisions of our nondiscrimination policy:

- We provide equal access to all programs and services for all individuals, regardless of race, color, national origin, age, gender, pregnancy, sexual orientation, genetic information, or disability.

- We offer appropriate accommodations for individuals with disabilities, including sign language interpreters and assistive technology.

- We provide services in multiple languages, including English, Spanish, Chinese, and other languages.

- We offer services in braille, large print, and other accessible formats.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding our nondiscrimination policy, please contact ADAMH's Vice President of Community and Cultural Engagement.
