The undersigned swears, attests or affirms that either the business entity stated above is a Small and Emerging Business Enterprise (SEBE) that meets the criteria and size standards set-forth in 13 CFR Part 121.201; SEBE Definition "A small and emerging business is defined as a business concern, including its affiliates, which is independently owned and operated. It is not dominant in its field of operation because it does not exercise a controlling or major influence on other comparable business operations in Central Ohio. Dominance is determined by several factors including but not limited to volume of business, number of employees, financial resources, and the nature of business activity."

Further the undersigned swears, attests or affirms that the business entity still constitutes a Small and Emerging Business in compliance with the rules, laws, ordinances, rules or regulations of the certifying entity. The undersigned understands and agrees that the ADAMH of Franklin County, its employees, contractors or agents may, at the Board's sole and complete discretion, verify that the business entity still constitutes a Small and Emerging Business by the certifying body.

The undersigned understands that the representations made herein are material to the award of a contract for the above named project. Should the County determine at any time during the project that material misrepresentations have been made by the undersigned, then the ADAMH Board of Franklin County may terminate any contract entered into with the business entity, and the business entity shall release, waive and forever discharge any claim against the ADAMH Board of Franklin County, its officers, employees, agents, or contractors from claims, actions, or proceedings related to such termination. In addition, misrepresentations or false statements may subject the undersigned and/or business entity to fines or prosecution pursuant to § 2913.42 of the Ohio Revised Code.
