

Collaborative Partner Award (Individual)

Award Criteria:

This award honors an individual who goes above and beyond to promote collaboration and coordination among human services organizations to improve the dignity, well-being and self-sufficiency of people in our community by motivating and inspiring others to work together on common issues.

Eligibility:

- Nominees must work in the ADAMH provider network or be a community partner.