

MINI-GRANT PROGRAM

2025 Guidelines

The ADAMH Board of Franklin County leads the planning, funding and evaluation of community-based recovery-oriented mental health and addiction prevention, treatment and support services for residents of Franklin County To support this mission, ADAMH will consider proposals from non-profit organizations for community programs/events that address growing challenges and provide social support in Franklin County by raising awareness of behavioral health issues, promoting prevention, reducing stigma, enhancing social connectedness, increasing resilience and educating about diversity, equity and inclusion. Programs should have a broad community impact and align with ADAMH mission, vision and strategic priorities.

Qualifications of Applicant

- The applicant must be a non-profit, faith-based organization or tax-exempt school:
- Non-profits must have 501c3 status. Applications are not accepted from organizations without a 501c3 designation.
- Faith-based organizations must meet IRS requirements to be considered tax exempt.
- Schools and higher education institutions with tax exempt status are eligible if not already funded by ADAMH in other ways.

Disqualifications of Applicant

- The applicant cannot be a current ADAMH provider. However, providers can be a partner involved in the program.
- The applicant cannot have received grant within same calendar year.
- Priority will be given to community groups or organizations that ADAMH does not currently support in other ways.

Considerations/Guidelines for Program/Event

- Program/event must promote social connectedness among Franklin County residents.
- Program/event must start and end between January 1 and December 31, 2025.
- Program/event must occur at least 60 days after the application deadline.
- Program/event should be a community-based activity that addresses growing challenges and provide social connections in Franklin County by raising awareness of behavioral health issues, promoting prevention, reducing stigma, increasing resilience or educating about diversity, equity and inclusion.
- Virtual events or digital campaigns are eligible for consideration.

Mini-Grant Funds cannot be used to/for:

- Purchase tickets for dinners, golf outings or fundraising events.
- Purchase meals or refreshments.
- Cover salaries, travel or lodging of applicant staff.
- Make capital improvements.
- Clinical services such as counseling, therapy, medication or case management.
- School-focused programming in a school district where ADAMH already funds prevention/intervention services. ADAMH funds services in the 16 public school districts in Franklin County.
- Summer camps. ADAMH supports summer camp programs in other ways.

Award Amounts

- Applicants that receive a mini-grant can be awarded up to $5,000. ADAMH reserves the right to award more or less than what is requested. The average award amount is around $2,000.
- Groups that have previously received a mini-grant may apply, but a group can only be awarded one mini-grant per calendar year. Priority will be given to organizations and program target populations that meet the application requirements and have not received ADAMH mini-grant support in the past.
- Faith organizations are eligible to receive funding for activities that are non-discriminatory or non-sectarian and that benefit the larger community.

Grant Requirements

- Funding will only be released to your organization after all requirements have been met and a payment request is submitted by the deadline stated in your approval letter. ADAMH reserves the right to deny funding if requirements are not met and all supporting material is not received by the deadline.
- All recipients of mini-grant funding must complete these minimum requirements:
