

Supporting Students, Building Resilience

Being a student in today's world is demanding, but no one has to do it alone.

It takes a village to support a student's growth, and the Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health Board of Franklin County (ADAMH) is here to be a part of that journey.

Get connected to prevention services that help students build resiliency, promote life skills, develop coping strategies and more.

Services funded by:

Reynoldsburg City Schools

The Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health Board (ADAMH) of Franklin County partners with 16 public school districts in Franklin County and certified behavioral health agencies to provide school-based prevention and early intervention services for all students to support their mental health and wellness journey. Prevention services help students build resilience and reduce the risk of mental illness and substance use.

ADAMH Providers at Reynoldsburg City Schools:

School Liaison:

Ashley Pittman
ashley.pittman@reyn.org

Southeast Healthcare

Contact: Judith Dean
deanj@southeastinc.com

Parents and students can reach out to the guidance counselor or the school liaison listed to access these resources.

Student Services Offered:

- Consultation for students, parents and school personnel
- Parent workshops and community trainings
- Drug-free social and recreational activities
- Youth-led prevention
- Violence prevention
- Classroom, small group or one on one instruction
- Classroom or school-wide universal prevention
- Education programs for youth/adult groups
- Healthy coping skills
- Early intervention/prevention
- Individual/small group skill-building

Note: Services provided to each school are specialized based on their unique needs. Services are currently offered to students in grades 6-12 in Reynoldsburg City Schools.

ADAMH funds accessible and affordable prevention, crisis, treatment, housing, family and recovery services through a network of more than 30 nonprofit agencies in Franklin County.

Visit us at: www.adamhfranklin.org
Connect with us: @ADAMHFranklin

